C G Am Am-G
 Riding on a horse into the sunset
 F C G
 Sleep'in underneath a billion stars
 C G
 Ain't as easy as it seems
 Am Am-G F
 To be the poetry in your dreams
 G7 C G7
 Running with the boys and staying out after dark

F G C
 Everybody wants to be a cowboy
 F G C
 Doing what you what you want and what you choose
 F G Am Am-G
 Everybody wants to be a cowboy
 F G7 C G7
 And nobody wants to pay the dues

C G Am Am-G
 The chaparral is cold as hell in the winter time
 F C G
 Cantina's are few and far between
 C G Am Am-G F
 The cowboys that we see in the movies and T.V.
 G7 C G7
 Don't always lead the lives that it seems

F G C
 Everybody wants to be a cowboy
 F G C
 Doing what you what you want and what you choose
 F G Am Am-G
 Everybody wants to be a cowboy
 F G7 C G7
 Nobody wants to pay the dues

C - G - Am - Em, F - G7 - C - G7 (no lyrics)

C G Am Am-G
 With prairie-dogs and sagebrush on the open range
 F C G
 I tip my hat to break the evening chill
 C G
 As the sun sets on the plateau
 Am Am-G F
 A coyote sings soprano
 G7 C G7
 Yes, I am a cowboy and I guess I'll always be

F G C
 Everybody wants to be a cowboy
 F G C
 Doing what you what you want and what you choose
 F G Am Am-G
 An everybody wants to be a cowboy
 F G7 C G7
 But nobody wants to pay the dues

F G Am Am-G
 Everybody wants to be a cowboy
 F G Am Am-G
 Doing what you want and what you choose to do
 C G
 Everybody wants to be
 Am Am-G F
 A cowboy just like me
 G7 C
 But nobody wants to pay the dues

G- Am - Em - F - G7 - C
